Former Groton Resident Dies at Aberdeen Home

George A. Zumm, 69, retired Brown county farmer, died Monday morning at his home in Aberdeen, following a long illness. Funeral services will be at the Evangelical United Brethern church, Aberdeen, at 3:00 p. m., Friday, with the Rev. H. H. Docktor officiating. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Zumm was born on January 21, 1881, at Fall River, Wis., where he grew to manhood. He was married to Alina Schwartz at Manchester, Wis., on Nov. 2, 1904. Their first home was at Beaver Dam, Wis. Two years later they moved to a farm near Fall River, where they resided for four years. They came to Brown county in 1909, where they farmed in the Ferney, Groton and Aberdeen vicinities until their retirement, six years ago, and they lived in Aberdeen since.

Survivors besides his wife are two sons, Leonard and Leslie Zumm, both of Aberdeen; two daughters, Mrs. George Dixon, Aberdeen, and Mrs. Arthur Mietzel, Appleton, Wis.; five sisters, Mrs. Lena Robbins, Madison, Wis.; Mrs. Martin Diekvoss, Forest Junction, Wis.; Lydia Zumm, Columbus, Wis.; Mrs. Fred Schneider, Milwaukee, Wis., and Mrs. Esther Henk, Madison, Wis. Four grandchildren also survive.
